

THURSDAY'S ROUNDUP: Letchworth's Halsey throws no-hitter while Cal-Mum's Devore rips grand slam as Lady Raiders roll; Englert blasts three-run bomb for York.

By LCN SPORTS STAFF
sports@livingstonnews.com

April 1, 2022

...

Cal-Mum 23, Warsaw 8

Cal-Mum broke open a close game with 10 runs in the fifth and seven more in the sixth as the Lady Raiders ran away with the LCAA D-II victory Thursday.

Maddy DeVore led the way going 3-for-3 with a grand slam dinger, a double, three runs scored, SB's and four RBIs.

Madison Wyskiel was 4-for-4 with a triple five runs scored and four RBIs while Sawyer Richardson and Avery DeMarco each had two hits and scored three runs.

Winning pitcher Emma Years struck out five and allowed just four hits.

Warsaw was led by Alyssa Jones who was 2-for-4 with a triple and two RBIs.

"You never know how anything will go when you play a game in March and that was what we saw today," Cal-Mum head coach Dan Dickens said. "Just going to keep on working and keep improving. We have a nice group of athletes to work with and I am excited moving forward."