ELLICOTTVILLE — Ellicottville never trailed in Saturday's non-league softball matchup with Caledonia-Mumford, but it wasn't until the final at-bat that the Eagles put away the pesky Raiders.

Linnea Jimerson scored the game-winning run on a passed ball in the bottom of the seventh inning, giving Ellicottville a wild, 12-11 victory in walk-off fashion.

"It was 11-5 going into the top of the seventh," Eagles coach Matt Finn explained. "They got the bases loaded with two outs, and Maddy DeVore hit a grand slam to make it 11-9. Two batters later, Grace Walker hit a two-run shot to tie the game."

No matter, Ellicottville loaded the bases in the bottom of the frame on a double by Jimerson and a pair of walks.

"It was a great game," Finn said. "The whole time we were thinking it was pretty safe, but they kept battling back. Give credit to my girls — they never got frustrated. They just kept working."

Jimerson and Rachel Frascella had two hits apiece to lead Ellicottville (2-3).

Courtney Sexton earned the pitching win, striking out four batters while allowing seven hits and six walks. Cal-Mum's Bri Raniewicz had three strikeouts, issuing 10 hits and eight walks.

Caledonia-Mumford 20, Salamanca 0

SALAMANCA — Caledonia-Mumford's Grace Walker (4 strikeouts) limited Salamanca (0-3) to two hits — a single by Emma Brown and double by Makenzie Oakes.

Kate Harmon was 4-for-6 to lead the Raiders at the plate.

Fillmore 4, Keshequa 0

FILLMORE — Macy Miller fired a two-hit shutout with nine strikeouts and one walk, while Carlee Miller was 2-for-3 with two doubles, an RBI and two runs scored to lift Fillmore.

Also for the Eagles (2-0), Riley Voss collected two hits and two RBIs, and Dani Wolcott (RBI) and Megan Lewandowski doubled. Four of Fillmore's six hits off Faith Wood were doubles.

Paige McKerrow led off the game with a triple for Keshequa (1-2).

"Our defense was sharp today," Eagles coach Jon Beardsley said. "Macy Beardsley at second base had an excellent game in the field, and overall we backed up Macy on the mound. As the game wore on, Macy started to hit some more spots, and her second and third pitches started working, limiting the hard-hit ball."

Coudersport 14, Smethport 2, 5 innings

COUDERSPORT, Pa. — Winning pitcher Emma Saulter (2-for-4, double), Chelsey Streich and Kayla Korb (triple) each drove in two runs to power Coudersport (2-2).

Saulter silenced Smethport's bats, yielding two hits and two walks while striking out five.
