

MONDAY'S VOLLEYBALL: Avon stays unbeaten with victory on senior night; Geneseo, Warsaw, Livonia, Cal-Mum and Le Roy also get W's

By LCN SPORTS STAFF
sports@livingstonnews.com
Apr 13, 2021

AVON — Host Avon volleyball stayed unbeaten with their victory over Wayland-Cohocton Monday night winning in four games — 25-11, 24-8, 21-25, and 25-16 on senior night in Avon.

Avon was led by their seven seniors including Kaila Lattuca, Bela Braun, Liv Montesano, Essie Levendusky, Ava Hubbard, MK Lanni and Ella Vanderbilt as they improved to 6-0 overall and a perfect 5-0 in the division.

Mari Baker paced Way-Co (0-8) with four digs, three aces and two kills.

Avon will visit Cal-Mum Wednesday before a big road trip to Letchworth Friday.

Livingston Conference

GENESEO over KESHEQUA

Host Geneseo took the sweep over Keshequa Monday winning 25-15, 25-17 and 25-12 on senior night.

Geneseo (2-6) was led by Maggie Kennedy with eight kills and Amber Clarke with four aces.

Keshequa (0-7) was led by Jade Wolfer with 13 digs.

“It was great to play well and get the win on senior night,” said Geneseo coach Chris Butera.

WARSAW over LETCHWORTH

Senior Myiah Annis-Jones put forth a great performance in the Tigers' win over the Indians, recording 20 assists to go with two kills and seven blocks.

“The win was an overall team effort,” said Warsaw head coach Amber Stackhouse. “Our serve receive really stepped up this match.”

Junior Deanna Johnson-Myers finished with 10 kills, junior Kourtney Keefer had 10 digs and junior Carlee Hunt ended the night with four kills and two blocks.

For Letchworth (6-2), junior Brooke DeGroff recorded 11 kills, while sophomore Morgan Brace had 18 assists.

Warsaw improves to 5-3.

CAL-MUM over YORK

The Raiders moved past the Golden Knights, 25-20, 25-18, 22-25, 25-22, as sophomore Maddy DeVore finished with 11 kills, six digs and a block, while senior Haley Sherwood added eight kills, 11 aces and two blocks.

Senior Izzy Simon added five kills and three assists, senior Maille Martin had six aces and eight digs.

York was led by senior Stephanie Schunk who finished with 15 assists and three kills. Sophomore Molly Grant added six kills, two aces and a block in the loss.

The Knights fall to 5-3. The Raiders improve to 5-2.

LIVONIA over HORNELL

Livonia swept the Raiders, 25-18, 25-6, 25-18.

Senior Emma Hyde recorded eight aces and three kills for the Bulldogs, while senior Lacey Williamson finished with six aces. Freshman Lillie Capecchi added two aces and 10 assists for Livonia (5-5).

Hornell fall to 1-8. Red Raiders' stats were not submitted.

LE ROY over DANSVILLE

The Knights worked their way past the Mustangs, 29-27, 25-21, 25-19.

"This was an incredible volleyball game and well played by both teams," said Dansville head coach Tracy Gregorius.

Sophomore Allie Ingles helped pace Le Roy with 11 kills and five aces, while junior Hailey Johnson finished with 12 kills and nine assists. Senior Jill Curtis recorded seven kills and 11 digs for the Knights (8-0).

For Dansville (5-4), junior Tessa Gregorius served for seven points to go with two aces, 10 digs, 10 assists and two kills. Senior Taylor Mann had 17 digs for the Mustangs.