

WEDNESDAY'S ROUNDUP: Notre Dame, Elba, Le Roy, Alexander tennis all victorious

By CHRIS METCALF
sports@batavianews.com

Apr 21, 2022

...

SOFTBALL

Cal-Mum 8, York 7

Leading 8-7 in the top of the sixth, host Cal-Mum got out of a bases-loaded, nobody out jam as they defeated York to improve to 4-0 on the season.

Cal-Mum's big inning came in the bottom of the fourth when they scored five times.

Maddy DeVore led the offense going 2-for-4 with two RBIs and two runs scored while Avery DeMarco was 2-for-3 with two runs scored.

Monty Kessler also drove in two runs for Cal-Mum.

Winning pitcher Emma Years allowed 11 hits and struck out four.

York was led by Anna Lyness who was 2-for-5 with two runs while Ariana Roessel was 2-for-3 with three RBIs. Emily Wallace also drove in two runs while Elexis Dixon added two hits.

Meredith Holland took the loss in the circle as she allowed eight hits and struck out seven. Holland added three hits on offense and drove one in.

"Tough position to be in with the bases loaded and no outs up one and our girls executed nicely and got us out of some trouble," C-M coach Dan Dickens said. "Fourth inning was huge for us as we came up with our most timely hits including DeVore's two-run single and hits by both DeMarco and Kessler and allowed a little bit of a cushion. Hopefully the weather continues to get better and we can keep getting games in."