

WEDNESDAY SOFTBALL: Kessler, DeVore pace Cal-Mum while Crye throws no-hitter as Avon cruises past Warsaw.

By LCN SPORTS STAFF
sports@livingstonnews.com
May 6, 2021

GENESEO — Montgomery Kessler had the hot stick Wednesday as she went 4-for-5 at the plate with two triples and four RBIs as visiting Cal-Mum (1-0) defeated Geneseo 20-4 in LCAA D-III action Wednesday.

The Lady Raiders broke open a semi close game with 10 runs in the sixth inning.

Winning pitcher Maddy DeVore allowed five hits with nine K's and also helped her cause going 4-for-6 at the plate with five RBIs and four runs scored. DeVore ripped a double and a triple.

Also for Cal-Mum, Olivia Woodward was 3-for-5 while Haley Sherwood was 2-for-4 with a triple and two RBIs.

Mackenzie Stetzenmeyer was 2-for-5 with three runs and two RBIs while Lizzy Pies, Taylor Mills, and Molly Ryan all scored twice.

For Geneseo (0-2), freshman Morgan Walton had a big game going 2-for-4 with a triple and six RBIs.

“Good to get the first win of the season, top of our order really hit the ball hard,” Cal-Mum coach Dan Dickens said. “Hopefully we keep getting better each week.”

Livingston Conference

AVON 2, WARSAW 0

Host Avon got a complete game pitching gem from Joleigh Crye as she tossed a no-hitter with 19 strikeouts as the Braves got the D-II win.

The junior did not walk a batter.

Crye allowed only one base runner on a fourth inning error.

Offensively, Crye went 3-for-3 at the plate with a double, run scored and one RBI.

Also for Avon, Brianna Pierce went 1-for-3 with a run scored.

YORK 8, PAVILION 4

York and Pavilion have had some outstanding battles this high school season.

They had another good one Wednesday as Merideth Holland was 4-for-4 with two doubles and three RBIs as the Lady Knights (2-0) defeated Pavilion in LCAA action.

Holland also picked up the pitching victory scattering six hits while striking out eight batters and walking two.

Kaitlyn Holland was 2-for-3 with a double and one RBI while Emily Wallace added two hits and three RBIs.

Anna Lyness also added two hits for York.

Pavilion is 0-1.

WAY-CO 16, PERRY 1

Greta Huber went 4-for-4 with a double and four RBIs while Kailey Johnson was 3-for-4 with three runs scored as Way-Co eased past Perry in D-II action.

Also for Way-Co, Sydnee Wetherbee was 3-for-4 with two runs and one RBI, Hannah Fairbrother added two hits and three runs scored while Brooke Lander was 2-for-4 with two runs.

Lilyin Mellick and Jessica Recktenwald also added two hits apiece and scored three runs combined.

In the circle, Huber recorded the victory with five innings of work as she struck out 12 batters allowing just five hits with one walk.

Lily Jacques and Elissa Uveino each had a pair of hits for the Yellowjackets who scored their lone run of the game in the third inning.