DANSVILLE — As the regular season winds down, Dansville was able to grab an easy win on Wednesday afternoon.

Elliott Hanks was solid in the circle, while a trio of hitters paced an explosive offense as the Mustangs cruised past Wilson/Edison/Early College, 22-2.

Hanks was in control all day as she went the full five innings in the mercy rule-shortened game and allowed just one hit, while she walked two and struck out nine.

Taylor Hamsher led the Dansville offense as she went 2-for-4, including a big grand slam, with a stolen base, three runs scored and five runs batted in.

Chelsie Tyler also had a big day at the plate as she finished 3-for-3 with a home run, three runs scored, four RBI and a stolen base, while Aynsley Belcher added three hits, including a pair of doubles, to go with four runs scored, three stolen bases and a pair of runs driven in.

The win moves Dansville to 3-13 to cap the regular season.
