LE ROY — A classic battle between two bitter rivals saw Cal-Mum come away with a one-run victory over Livingston Conference foe Le Roy.

The Raiders scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning to push themselves ahead of the host Knights, 5-2, which turned out to be enough as C-M staved off a LR rally in the bottom half of the frame.

Maddy DeVore finished 2-for-4 with a double, triple, a couple of runs scored and an RBI, while Avery DeMarco added a big evening consisting of a couple of hits and a couple of RBI. Isabella Cochran added a two hits, both of which were doubles, and Montgomery Kessler knocked in two runs to help Cal-Mum's cause.

Emma Years earned the win in the circle for the Raiders, allowing eight hits and striking out two while outdueling Le Roy's Lilly Uberty who was hit with the loss. Le Roy's Haily Johnson finished 3-for-4 with a couple of runs scored.
