CAL-MUM 14, PAVILION 11

Visiting Cal-Mum scored eight runs before Pavilion even came to the plate as the Lady Raiders held on for the LCAA D-III victory.

With Cal-Mum leading 14-4 in the bottom of the fifth, Pavilion plated seven runs to pull close.

Cal-Mum (9-5) was led offensively by Olivia Woodward who was 4-for-5 with three runs scored and two RBIs while Maddy DeVore was 3-for-4 with a triple, double and three runs scored.

Avery DeMarco finished 2-for-3 with two runs scored while Mackenzie Stetzenmeyer went 2-for-4 with two RBIs.

Sawyer Richardson also added two hits for Cal-Mum.

Pavilion (1-11) was led by Lauren Kingsley, who was 3-for-5 with two triples and four RBIs.

Sydney Finch, Sarah Laurie, and Emilee Weis all had two hits for the Lady Gophers.

“It was a good start for us getting out to a 10-0 lead but we need to cut back on allowing big innings which get extended by errors,” Cal-Mum head coach Dan Dickens.
