

H.S. VOLLEYBALL: Cal-Mum captured LCAA D-III title with win over Pavilion; Alexander, Batavia also win

By THE DAILY NEWS SPORTS STAFF

SPORTS@BATAVIANEWS.COM

PUBLISHED: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2019 AT 10:25 PM

PAVILION — After falling to Le Roy on Monday, the Caledonia-Mumford volleyball team had another tough matchup on Tuesday as it went on the road looking to wrap up the Livingston Conference Division III title.

Cal-Mum was able to erase the thoughts of the loss to the Oatkan Knights with another divisional title, but it certainly wasn't easy.

The Red Raiders were able to outlast a strong Golden Gophers team in five sets behind 34 assists, six aces and four kills from Mackenzie Stetzenmeyer; Stetzenmeyer had 12 straight service points in the final set as Cal-Mum jumped out to a commanding 19-4 lead.

Set scores on the night were 25-22, 22-25, 27-29, 25-19, 25-9.

Maddy Devore added 14 kills, six digs, and two blocks, Emma Keenan was impressive on the defensive end with 21 digs and Maille Martin chipped in with nine aces, four digs and three assists as Cal-Mum moved to 7-0, 11-4.

Addy Milligan led Pavilion (5-2, 14-3) with 14 digs and 12 kills, Karlee Zinkievich had 13 digs, four kills and five aces and Shannon Campbell handed out 20 assists to go with four aces in the losing effort.

Genesee Region

BYRON-BERGEN over O-A/ELBA

The Bees got another balanced effort, led by 12 kills, six digs and three aces from Madison Farnsworth and seven aces and nine digs from Abby Vurraro to oust the Hornets in three sets.

B-B won 25-17, 25-13, 25-23.

Lexi Vurraro dealt out 21 assists to go with two digs and four aces, Amaya Gunther added six aces and a dig and Hannah Van Skiver finished with three kills, four aces and a dig in the win.

B-B moved to 10-0, 12-0, while O-A/Elba dropped to 9-3 overall.

ALEXANDER over HOLLEY

Rylie Merle had seven kills and four aces to lead the Trojans to the three-set win — 25-18, 25-11, 25-15.

Kiersten Przybylski also had a nice night as she finished with 19 assists to go with four kills and five aces as Alexander moved to 8-6.

KENDALL over LYNDONVILLE

Karlee Robb had seven aces and five kills and Sara Mattle finished with 14 aces in the win for the Eagles.

Also for Kendall, Brittney Marks had 16 digs, five assists, two aces and two kills, Autumn Woodward added five kills and three digs and Madison Shonitsky chipped in with seven assists and three digs.

The Eagles won in four sets, 25-13, 23-25, 25-10, 25-13.

Monroe County

BATAVIA over BRIGHTON

Senior Courtnee Yasses had another big night as she finished with 13 kills, 11 assists and six aces as the Blue Devils cruised in straight sets — 25-23, 25-23, 25-18.

Bryn Wormley had seven kills and nine assists and Andresha Richardson added 10 aces, while Mackenzie Reigle and Emma Sallome led the defense in the win for Batavia.